

Dr. Elise M. van de Putte is pediatrician specialized in social pediatrics. Her expertise is in the clinical approach of children and adolescents with child abuse, somatization and conversion disorder. She is a researcher in the field of child abuse and chronic fatigue syndrome (thesis 2006, total of grants 2 million euros, 40 publications)

She is the Chair of the Medical Ethical Committee for research in minors of the University Medical Center Utrecht since 2012. And she is a member of the Taskforce Child Abuse and Sexual Assault, an advisory board for the Ministries of Safety & Justice and Health

